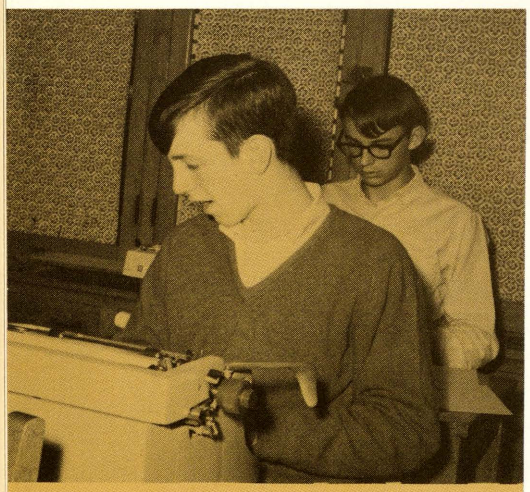
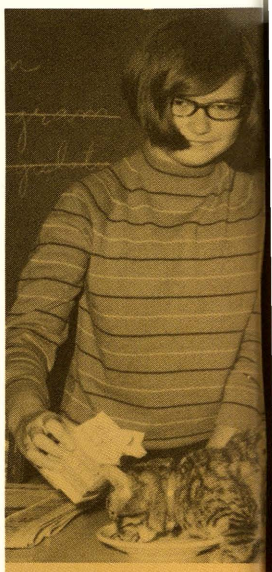
The Year . . . 1968

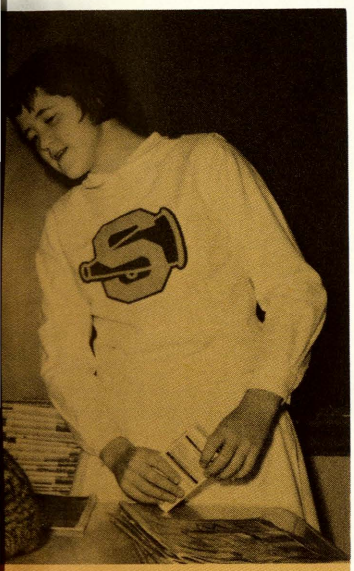


Junior High 23

Faculty 19

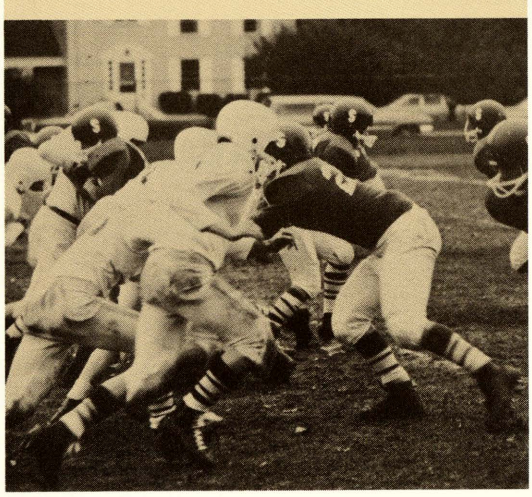


School

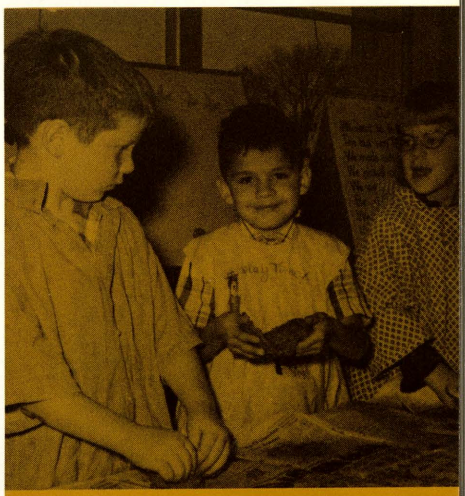


Life 7

Sports 51



The Year--loud voices, renewing old friendships and making new ones; clanging bells signaling the start of classes, and slamming lockers. It all began like this. Then class routine set in and the Southerners settled down for the long months ahead. It was marked with disappointment and happiness from victories and defeats in athletics. It was Spectacular Year. It saw challenges from our teachers met with success and failure. It ended triumphantly as the 9A festivities brought The Year . . . 1968 to an end.



Elementary 58

Mr. Guy, in his thirty-eighth year as principal at South School, takes time from his duties to select one of his favorite stories on the legends of Paul Bunyan.

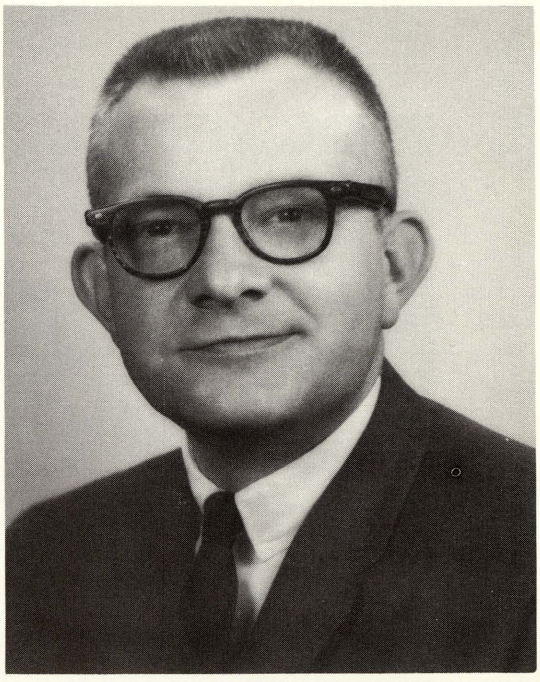
Working hard to make the year a better one for the Saginaw Public Schools is the Board of Education. They are FRONT ROW (l-r) Superintendent Jack P. Taylor, Ph.D.; President John O. Goodsell,

Administrators Provide Us for Learning

Providing leadership for South's students is Miss Gay, (left), Dean of Students.

Office secretary, Mrs. Schallhorn, pauses from her typing.

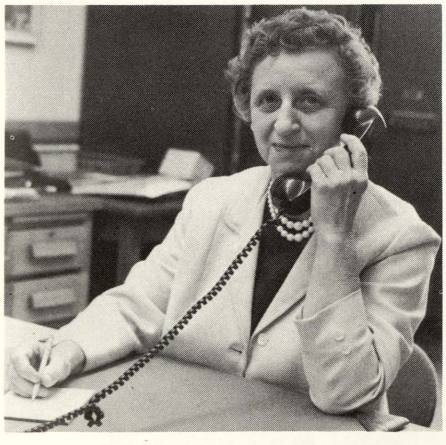
M.D.; and Vice President R. Joseph Heagany. BACK ROW: Walter C. Averill, Ruben Daniels, Harold M. Karls, and Secretary Dorothy R. Beck. Missing is Treasurer Eugene P. Stansbury.



This year brought a new Superintendent, Dr. J. P. Taylor, to the Saginaw School System.

with Good Atmosphere

in 1968



Mrs. Herzog, office secretary, (left), takes notes while answering a phone call.

Helping students overcome their problems is the business of Counselor Paul Shaefer.

In Recognition . . .

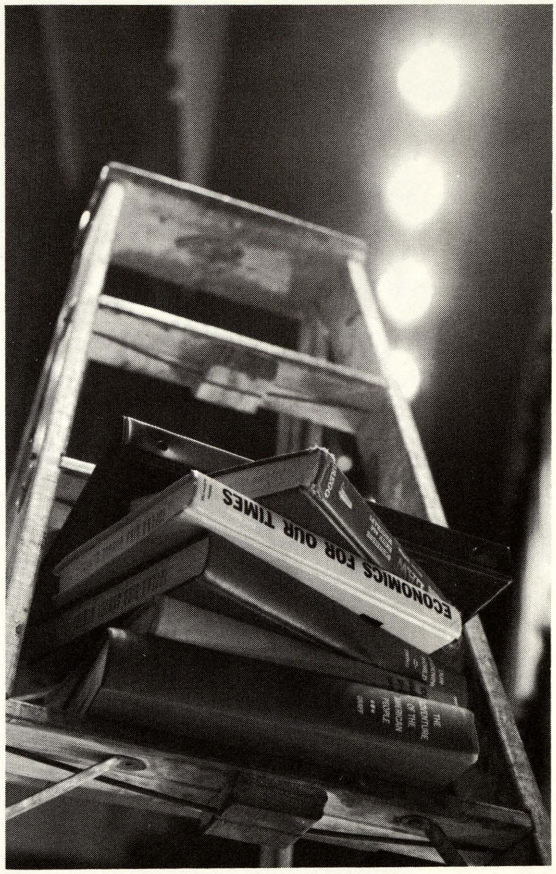
"One thing I know: the only ones among you who will be happy are those who have sought and found how to serve."
Dr. Albert Schweitzer

It is the unusual person who has followed this philosophy and learned how to serve. Fortunate are those who have come in touch with some of these people, but most fortunate are the students of South, for they have six such teachers in their school. For more than twenty-five years, each of these instructors has served the youth of Saginaw by showing them the way of knowledge.

The young people have benefited greatly. They have been witnesses to living examples of individuals who have found how to serve others.

Thank you.

SCHOOL LIFE



Hectic life in suburia is portrayed by Wendy Westlund and Barb Wahl.

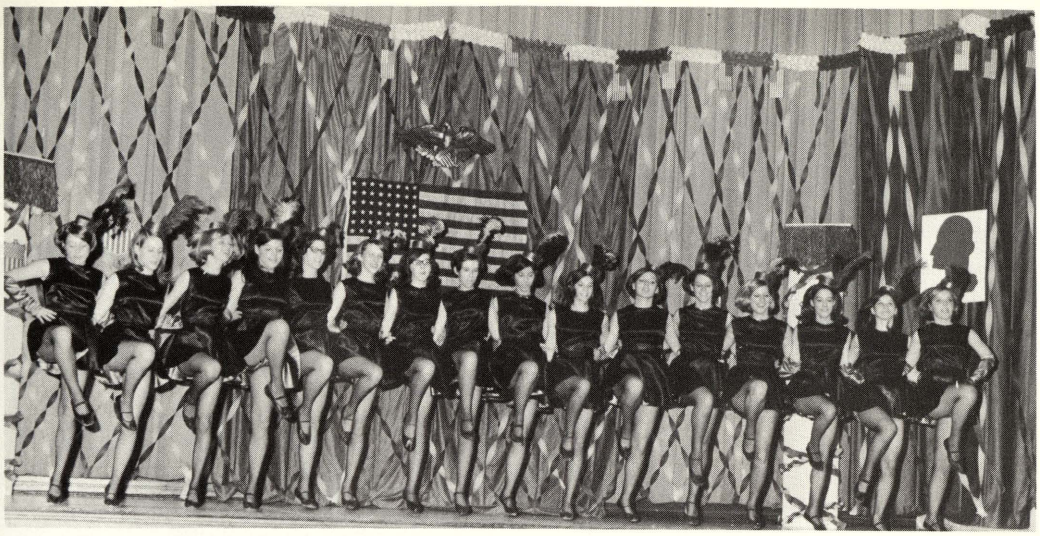
Top Spectacular ticket sales honors went to John Behm, M Maurer, and Martha Heagany.

Spectacular . . . 1968 Showcase for Student Talent

Jody Zolinski and Debbie Nelson display their balancing skill on the unicycle.

Assisting Mr. Eynon in the door prize drawing are Jerome Fribley, master of ceremonies, and Sue Love, mistress of ceremonies.

Linda Farrel, Mary Jane Walch, and Jenny Damore make the last performance for the ladders in the Spectacular a memorable one.



The 16 Southern Sweethearts Karla Zaggy, Sue Shaw, Maggie Nickless, Vickie Reinbold, Gretchen Wacke, Sue Love, Wendy Westlund, Diane Brooks, Barb Makrianis, Debbie Beauregard, Lynn Paige, Bertie Brennan, Donna Branch, Candy Dean, Jill Steiner, and Marsha Vibert all kick as one.

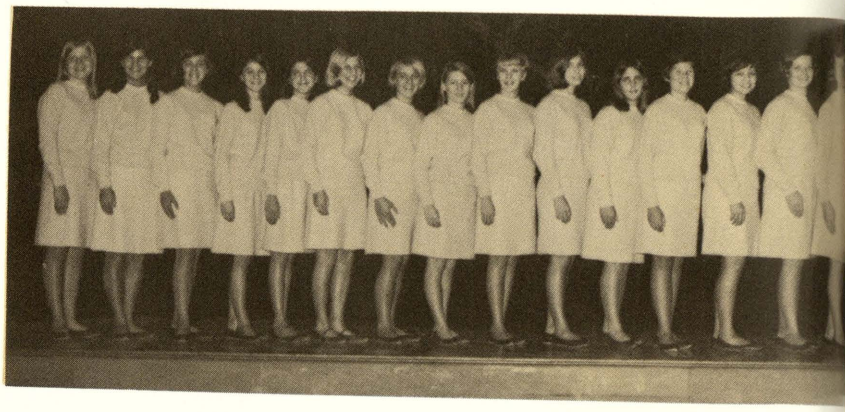
Striving to outdo the girls, the Sharpettes' precise footwork stuns the audience.

Success came to talented students, whose hard work combined with the enthusiasm and cooperation of the faculty and fellow students, brought the Spectacular once again to South.

Excitement was the key word for teachers and students in the audience as they eagerly awaited the appearance of the master of ceremonies which would mark the start of the "Big Show".

'The Year' Set to Music

Performing in their bright pink outfits the Madrigals this year are (1-r): J. Zettel, L. Meyer, D. Helpap, J. Steiner, J. Zolinski, D. Branch, J. Ogram, S. Shaw, S. Schnell, L. Paige, S. Hanes, M. Heagany, G. Ortega, V. Brown, S. Love and accompanists C. Arnold and J. Specht.

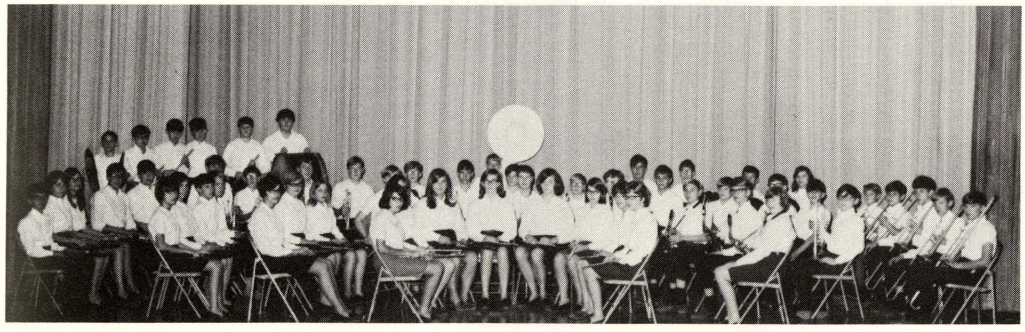


Singing to the accompaniment of guitars, the Folk Singers have a good time practicing and performing.

Playing their strings, the Orchestra adds color to the music department.

The Senior Band, dressed in full uniform, participated in many concerts this year.

Singing like they really meant it the Mixed Choir under the direction of Miss Gase performed well throughout the year.



The play intermission, the spring concert and a P.T.A. meeting make up the main activities of the Junior Band.

Soprano and alto blend harmoniously when the Girls' Choir sings.

Glenn Duncan and Roger Schneider, stage crew, prepare speaker equipment for a student assembly.

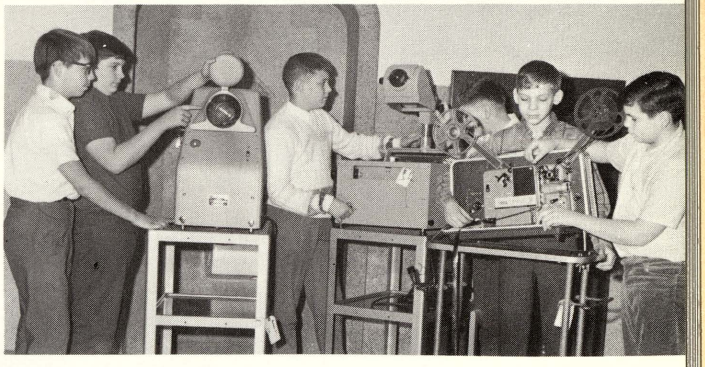
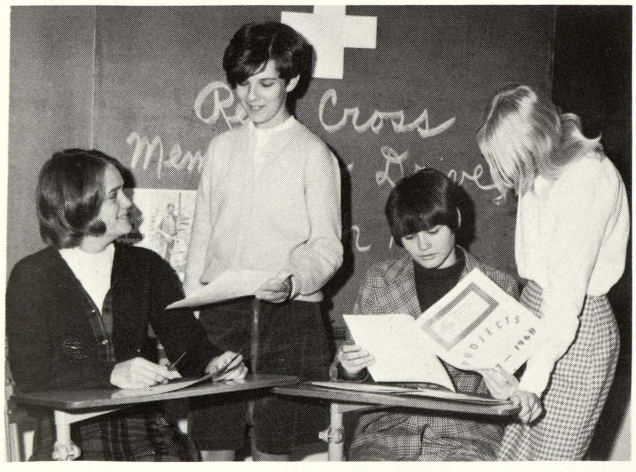
Staffs Lead the Way at South

Sue Love, Dennis Kelsey, and Ellen Christiansen are seen leading the school in the opening flag ceremony.

Serving South students and faculty in the cafeteria this year are: FIRST ROW (1-r) J. Sullivan, J. VanSickle, J. Polzin, M. Gerow, K. Stahle. SECOND ROW: D. Ackerman, T. Morford, G. Simmet, S. Claus, J. Boyne, M. Colpean, C. Sullivan, and J. Fritz.



Keeping the projectors running smoothly throughout the year are (1-r) Bob Wheatley, Greg Teter, Mark Maurer, Brad Willard, Mark Babcock, and Mike O'Conner.



Red Cross representatives, (1-r) Sally Firchau, Diane Brooks, Laurie Seaman, and Janet Ledke, go over projects for the coming year.

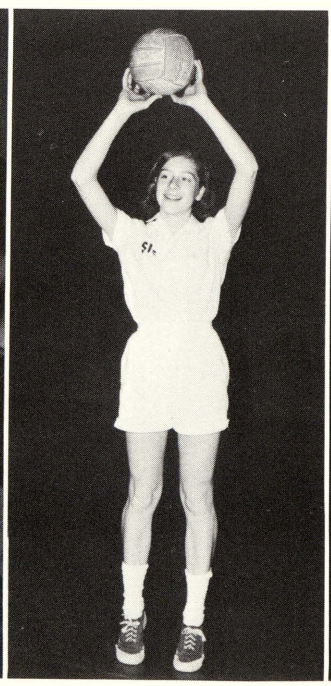
FIRST ROW (1-r) J. Gookin, P. Crampton, J. Metzger, C. Johns, A. Genske, J. Byron. SECOND ROW: K. Butzin, V. Terzia, S. Birdsall, D. Stuhler, J. Schmidt, K. Bender, N. Herzbeiger. THIRD ROW: J. Benthien, S. Wolz, K. Carnes, K. Kitsch, R. Carstens, and L. Giesecke aid Mrs. St. John in the management of the library.

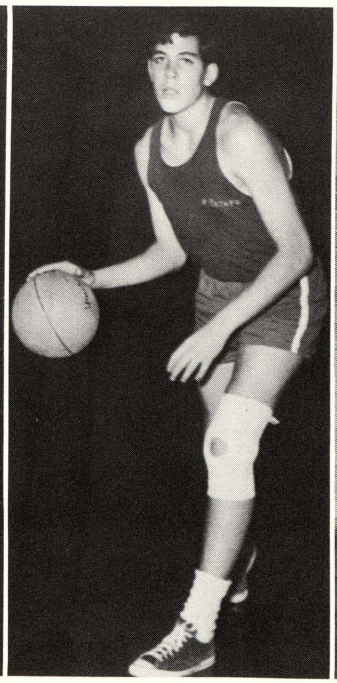
Responsibility Found in Student Government

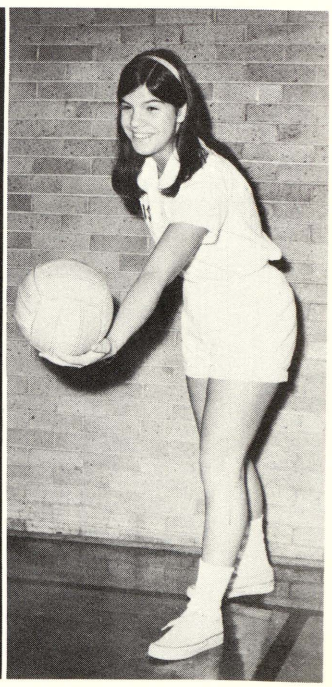
Preparing for a Student Council meeting with the school officers is President Linda Meyer. (center seated)

Members of this year's President's Council are: FRONT ROW, left to right: P. Crampton, M. McKenna, K. Reis, S. Redburn, V. LaLonde, J. Steiner, K. Stuart, J. Cushman, M. Delemeester, K. Bushey. SECOND ROW: S. Snyder, M. Garchow, S. McMath, L. Paige, B. Makrianis, D. Galbraith, B. Brennan, B. Beechinor, P. Callas, J. Suhan, B. Jewell. THIRD ROW: J. Scott, D. Slade, S. Hopkins, T. Alles, B. Becker, V. Pococke, O. Smith, M. Middlebrook, D. Roselle, S. Borchard. TOP ROW: T. Schultz, G. Leis, P. SanMiguel, T. Engle, A. McNish, M. Fierstine, E. Becker, M. Sulfridge, J. Emery. NOT PICTURED: Pam Hill.

Besides heading the student government of South, John Suhan, treasurer; Diane Galbraith, secretary; Bob Becker, vice-president; and Linda Meyer, president excell in various other school activities.





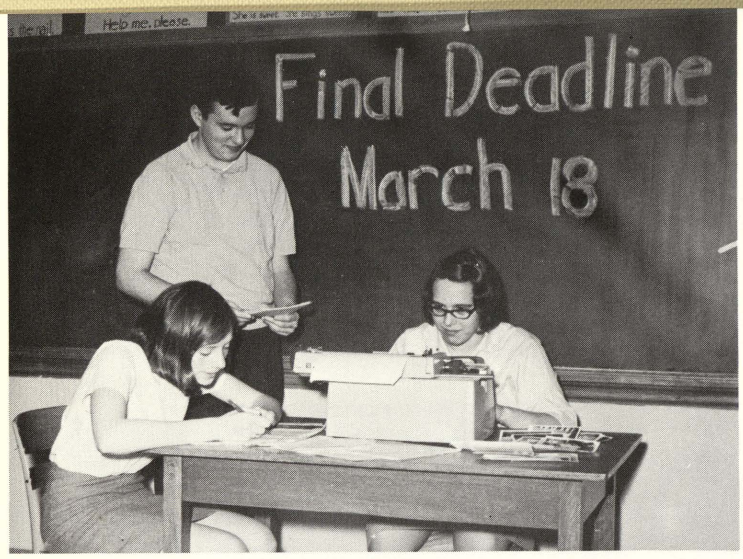


Cheerleaders Make 'The Year' Come Alive

Mixed emotions at losing a game are shown on the faces of Gloria Ortega and Mary Walch.

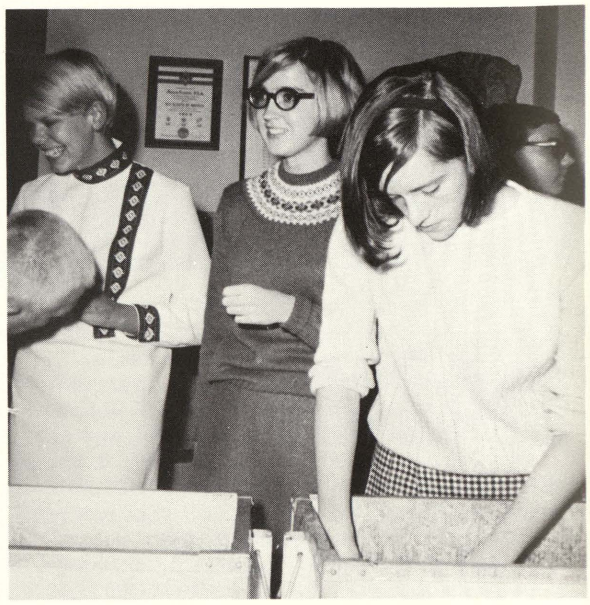
South's cheerleaders spur the football team to a victory.

This year's cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Kreuger, are (1-r) Mary Kay Anderson, Marsha Vibert, Sue Redburn, Donna Branch, Gloria Ortega, and captain, Mary Jane Walch.



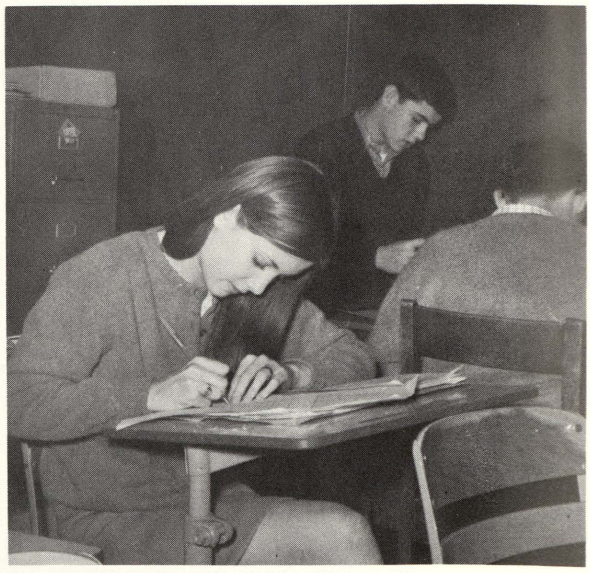
Co-editors, Andy Abler and Diane Galbraith, work on yearbook organization while Kris Baumgarten types cutlines.

Sis Boom Staff Records "The Year . . . 1968"



Peddling pop to customers at the Victory Dance was a big job for Jacquie Specht and Diane Galbraith.

Kris Baumgarten, caught off guard, is surprised by the camera as Jacquie Specht works on.

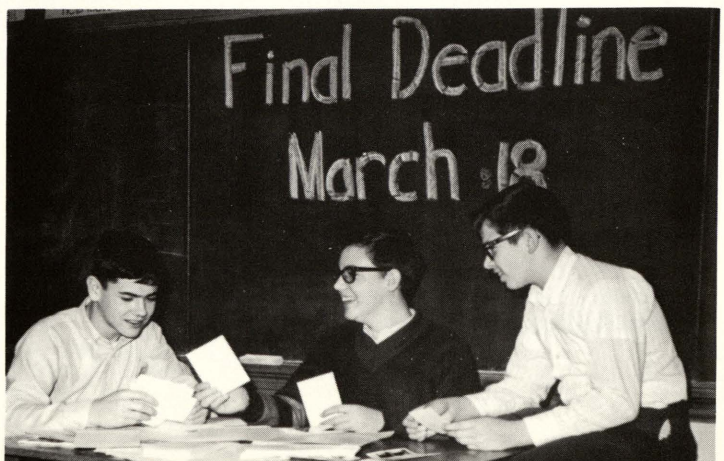


Seriously planning a page layout is Barb Besson.

Mark Currell, Jim Geistman and Chuck Gasparovic examine headlines that will make up a part of this year's yearbook.

Linda Mitchell reads student names as Karen Gardstrom checks them off the class lists.

Ann Romaker, Carol Schultz and Gretchen VanderKlipp find that old yearbooks are good sources for new ideas.



Pictures just returned from Werkema's are inspected by Dan Cappell, John Behm and Dave Hanson.

The hardworking cast of this year's play relaxes after a successful performance.

Tough Southern defensive tackles put the stop to a Northern ball carrier on a deep punt return.

Co-captains Dan Cappell and Mike Middlebrook are shown with South's new coach, Tom Sharpe.

Joe Walters stalks a North ball carrier, as Mike Frick comes up to assist.

A Northerner attempts yardage as two defenders bring him down.

Fine offensive blocking displayed by Bob Preston and Rick Premo, allows Dick Slade to carry for a big gain.

Rick Premo, Andy Prine and Mike Frick discuss the team's strategy for the next play.

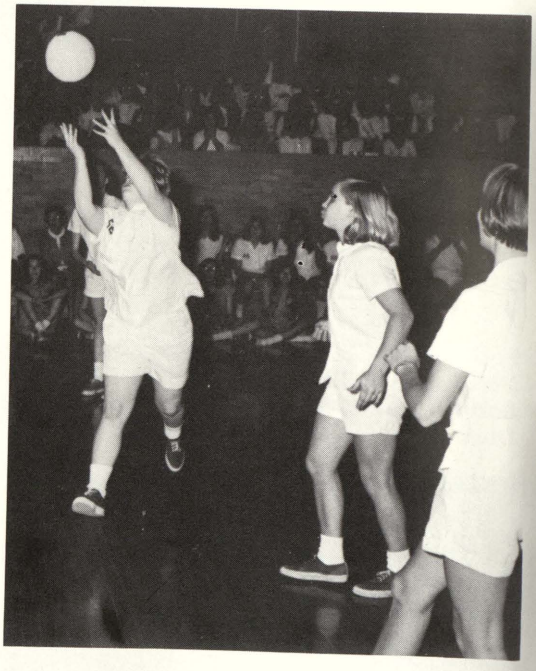
Helping the ball over the net during a game with North is Fran Carder.

Kris Baumgarten and Cindy Nye leave the huddle with renewed determination.

Looking on as Miss Vassaw admires the gold volleyball given to her by them are members of the volleyball team.



The set-up, one of the most important parts of volleyball, is ably demonstrated by Kathy Pussehl.

Looking as if she is casting a spell of victory over the team is Miss Vassaw.

Moving in to save the play is Kathy Pussehl.

The Year . . . 1968 came to an end with students gathering at the door for the last day of school. It's a day of mixed emotions. For the seventh graders it's a day of victory and triumph, proving that they made it through the first year at South. In comparison, it's a day which marks the end of the beginning for the ninth graders, for they have completed junior high and are now ready for Arthur Hill.

Thanks and appreciation go to Mr. Maurice Guy, principal, South Intermediate School; Mr. Figg, advisor from our publisher, the American Yearbook Company; and Werkema Studio for their assistance in the publishing of this yearbook. Miss Murphy merits much praise for the sketch on the opening page of the yearbook.

A special "Thank you" is issued to Mrs. Becker, our faithful advisor and friend whose help was immeasurable.

The staff and editors of the Sis Boom hope that we have represented life at South as you, the students, have lived it.
